

ABG – Expanding their footprint in the Great Plains/Midwest region of the country

For Immediate Release

Peoria, IL, September 14, 2020 - Alliance Benefit Group, LLC (ABG), is expanding once again and this time it is in the middle of the continental US. Retirement Plan Consultants, located in Norfolk, Nebraska, is the newest retirement plan recordkeeping and consulting firm to join ABG.

Founded in 2009, RPC is an independent recordkeeper and third-party administrator. Focusing on helping their clients achieve success using a proactive and innovative team approach is their ultimate mission.

“I was very happy when I heard Retirement Plan Consultants was ready to join ABG.” said Don Mackanos, President of Alliance Benefit Group, LLC. “By having a new ABG member firm in that region of the country just shows the expansion of our footprint. I know the 17,500 participants and 1800 plans they serve are in excellent hands. RPC has a similar business model to many of the ABG firms including open architecture recordkeeping, consulting and administration so I know they will fit in well with the group.”

“We’re excited to join a great group of firms that share our same vision of improving the retirement plan experience for financial advisors, plan sponsors and participants,” said Josh Kegley, National Sales Director of Retirement Plan Consultants. “The group has a wealth of knowledge and helps us bring scale to our business.”
